PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Digital marketing leader with 10+ years of experience driving performance campaigns, tracking implementations, and data-driven activation strategies for premium brands across international markets. I have managed paid media across Google, Meta and affiliate channels, set up tracking infrastructure (GA4, GTM, pixels, product feeds), and built reporting systems that translate data into clear commercial decisions. As Team Lead at PAYBACK GmbH I lead a nine-person team with full budget responsibility and ownership of digital performance KPIs for brand partners in the German market. My background spans fashion, lifestyle, e-commerce and brand activation — always with a focus on measurement, efficiency, and scalable systems. I am deeply interested in the application of AI to marketing workflows and ad technology, and am actively exploring this space through my community initiative Her AI Studio Club. I bring a practitioner's perspective to adtech and AI: grounded in how campaigns actually run, what data is available, and where automation creates real leverage.
